IPES Institutional Supporters

The International Police Executive Symposium, IPES, www.ipes.info, is a registered not-for-profit educational corporation for the encouragement of police educational endeavors and providing professional service to the police of the world. It relies on the assistance of institutional supporters to carry out its mission.

Institutional supporters are encouraged to be active participants in the IPES, contributing to its policies and programs. The IPES offers institutional supporters a spectrum of services, from providing police education solutions to executing training courses.

Institutional supporters are part of the IPES' global network of criminal justice elites: A large and diverse multinational group represented by influential police policy makers, high-ranking practitioners and scholars at top academic institutions who initiate and advance the activities of the IPES.

- For an annual fee of US$400.00, institutional supporters receive:
- Full access to the informational resources and professional global contacts of the IPES
- Invitation to the IPES annual meetings
- Free accommodations and hospitality at IPES annual meetings (after payment of discounted fee)
- Six issues of Police Practice and Research: An International Journal \(PPR\) FREE (Annual subscription, January – December)
- Free copies of IPES publications which include official brochures, executive summaries, and the books with the papers presented at each meeting (a unique collection of papers with global perspectives).
- Participation on United Nations Meetings
