PROMOTING THE RULE OF LAW, PROTECTING HUMAN RIGHTS, AND THE VULNERABLE SEGMENTS OF THE SOCIETY

Sub Themes:

- 1- Enhancing Police Practices with Accountability, Legitimacy, and Transparency
- 2- Organizational Learning, Technology, and Research-based Crime Prevention
- 3- Hiring and Retention Issues in Policing
- 4- Artificial Intelligence and its Implications on the Rule of Law and Policing
- 5- Transnational Criminal Networks and International Policing
- 6- Cyber Security and Fighting Cyber Crimes
- 7- Protecting Borders, Policing Illegal Immigration, and Human Trafficking
- 8- Police Suicide, Mental Illness, Stress and Burnout
- 9- Policing Mass Shootings, Gun Violence, and Violent Crimes

Please send abstracts for papers and presentations to the Program Chair,
Dr. Chuck Russo, at 2024ConferenceChair@ipes.info

All papers presented at the meeting will be considered for publication in a post-conference volume in the IPES Book Series, Advances in Police Theory and Practice.

"IPES brings police researchers and practitioners together to facilitate cross-cultural, international, and interdisciplinary exchanges for the enrichment of the policing profession."

The conference will be in Thessaloniki, a Greek port city on the thermalic Gulf of the Aegean Sea, with evidence of Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman history remains. The conference will be held in a luxurious hotel in the city, and the intense sessions will be interspersed with a rich cultural program, including tours of the ancient historic sites! You can receive more information about cultural activities from Dr. Snezeana Mijovic Das, M.D., at anamijovic@yahoo.com.

The conference fee will cover the hotel, all meals, airport and local transportation, sightseeing, cultural entertainment, and the spousal program costs. You may register and pay at the website via credit/debit card, PayPal, bank transfer, or by sending a check.
